

Upon joining our facility membership, Certified Personal Trainers are available to provide new members with an orientation to the fitness facilities in the Center to help them get started safely on an exercise program. Depending on medical history or status, we may ask for a medical release from your physician in order to proceed with the orientation process. Dates and Times for orientations are located in the front lobby of the center.